COA's Crystal Ball for 2023

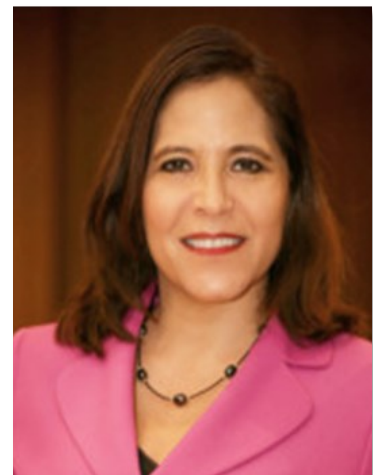

What to expect from cancer policy in the year ahead

Ted Okon
Executive Director

Nick Ferreyros
Managing Director, Policy,
Advocacy and Communications

Rose Gerber, MS
Director, Patient Advocacy &
Education

2023's policy slate is full of changes that could affect the delivery of cancer care. A new Congress, the upcoming Enhancing Oncology Model, and activity around the states on pharmacy benefit managers are just a few of the items that could change how your provider operates and how you receive care. Are you ready for them?

Join COA's Executive Director Ted Okon, Managing Director Nick Ferreyros, and Director of Patient Advocacy and Education Rose Gerber on Wednesday, January 11, 2023 at 12 p.m. ET for an exciting discussion around expected developments in cancer policy this year!
